

---

Soluta.Net offers training services in all the areas it master: it's courses are right from the same people who apply those technologies in real cases in the industry hence insuring a high satisfaction rate from customers.

Training Services/Courses Introduction to MDA

- MDA for Executives
- MDA in Practice
- UML base
- Design of distributed architectures based on components
- Tutorial on the development of service-oriented architectures (SOA)
- Web services
- Sparx System's Enterprise Architect, foundation course: final goal is to progressively build a project using the base features of Enterprise Architect. This course is example-driven.
- Sparx System's Enterprise Architect, advanced course: adds methodological and technical concepts to the Foundation Course, such as MDA, advanced code engineering, administration functions,... This course is example-driven.

Additional Services/Information

Soluta.Net offers special technology specific services with Sparx System's Enterprise Architect such as Webservices, MDA and model to model transformations.
It offers special tailored course for Requirement Management,
In addition it provides also training on the job, working with the customers technical developers and architects to solve a real case problems using Sparx System's Enterprise Architect.

--- end of document ---